

I do not support any law that could lessen the requirments of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. If, for instance, I would like to do repeat business with a company than I will call them. I enjoy not having to screan my phone calls.